Poultry social network

NFAHWC Forum 2019 Surveillance Successes Discussion Panel Victoria Sikur, Canadian Hatching Egg Producers

1

The poultry sector network provides benefit

- Manageable design
 - According to need and available resources
 - Currently ~47 owning members
- Information sharing
 - Roundtables
 - Poultry diseases and surveillance-related information
- Regular contact
 - In "peace-time" as well as when there is an incident
 - · Gaining an understanding of who does what
 - Opportunities for collaboration

Network members are a key factor for success

- Excellent facilitation
- Targeted expertise
- Willingness to contribute
- How to articulate value and overall direction of the group

